

Coaching and Mentoring

Often Chief Executives, Commissioners and those in project management roles find themselves isolated with not enough support and without an obvious peer group. Coaching or mentoring sessions offer an invaluable opportunity for such support as well as a unique opportunity to focus on personal development.

FEATURES

- An experienced professional to guide and challenge you.
- You set the agenda – defining what you want to work on.
- A structured process, designed around your needs.
- Held at your choice of venue and location.

WHY PARADIGM?

- We only use our most experienced and senior staff.
- We are flexible and responsive to your needs – we will draw up a bespoke programme for you.
- We bring a unique perspective of our own practice as well as drawing together all of the learning from the best practice that we have a privilege to work with.

WHAT YOU WILL ACHIEVE

- A focus on the things which are most important to you – you set the agenda.
- A critical friend to bounce ideas off.
- An independent and objective viewpoint.
- An opportunity for Chief Executives in particular to have independent support from outside their organisation.