

An introduction to Self Directed Support and Individualised Budgets

Participants
20
Price Band
C
No of days
1
Extra Costs
None

This one day workshop gives people a good basic knowledge of the principles of Self Directed Support and an understanding of how Individualised Budgets will impact on services.

FEATURES

- Delivered by some of the most knowledgeable and experienced trainers in the UK.
- Content drawn from Paradigm's extensive experience in developing Individualised Budgets and Self Directed Support and the In Control programme.
- A mixture of presentation and group work.
- The most current thinking and knowledge around Self Directed Support.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Knowledge of In Control.
- Understanding of the principles of Self Directed Support.
- Understanding of the impact on organisations and current roles.
- A basic knowledge of developing an individualised budget and support plan.

WHO IS THE COURSE FOR?

Anyone with an interest in knowing more about Self Directed Support and Individualised Budgets and how this may impact on their job or organisation.

OUTLINE PROGRAMME

- The principles of Self Directed Support.
- History of Individual Budgets.
- In Control as a model of Self Directed Support.
- Support Planning.
- Support Brokerage.
- Resource Allocation Systems and Finance.
- The impact on existing jobs and roles.