

You want to know ...

... more about how much care and support costs and how it works?

Most people who get support have to pay for some of this with their own money...

...even if they are on benefits.

There are some types of care and support which a local authority must not charge for.

Please click here to read more about these.

