

NEW Supported Decision-Making Training

Paradigm
Pushing boundaries

Supported Decision-Making is a basic human right that is highlighted in the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities and is part of The Mental Capacity Act 2005 and The Care Act 2014. It is NOT negotiable. Are YOU upholding this?

1 DAY
CO-FACILITATED
TRAINING
IN PERSON
OR ONLINE

BOOK NOW

1 day co-facilitated training for up to 24 people for £1150 PLUS VAT and expenses.

To find out more or email us on hello@paradigm-uk.org.

This training will:

- Explore what Supported Decision-Making is.
- Highlight how it is embedded in law.
- Explore communication, capacity, and best interest decisions.
- Bring alive your learning through real stories.
- Develop your skills in supporting people to explore choices and make decisions.
- Introduce you to the FREE co-produced 'A Practical Guide to Supported Decision-Making' and all its practical tools to support your work.
- Address recording decisions and sharing info.